

UCI Emeriti Association Recognition

2/2019

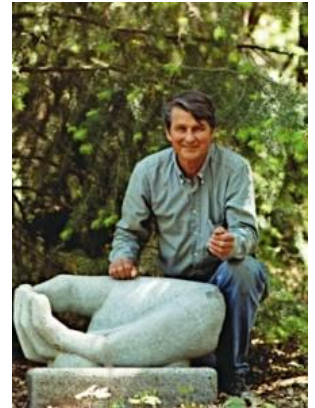

Professor Emeritus Dan Stokols

The Society for Human Ecology has honored Dan Stokols with its Gerald L. Young Distinguished Scholarly Book Award for his 2018 tome, "Social Ecology in the Digital Age: Solving Complex Problems in a Globalized World" (London: Academic Press). Read more here.

1/2019

Professor Emeritus Karl Hufbauer

In 2000, a year after retiring as a history professor, Karl took a stone-sculpting class. This was enough to make an enthusiast of him. He has a sculpture featured at The Huntington Library and Gardens entitled, "Childs Hand". He has completed about two hundred pieces. While he carved a few from soapstone and alabaster and more from marble, he shaped most from harder stones such as granite, basalt, rhyolite, dunite, gneiss, schist, and quartzite. Read more here.

12/2018

Distinguished Professor Emeritus Don Saari

of Economics, has been elected a foreign member of the Russian Academy of Sciences. The honor, which was accompanied with an honorary doctorate, was bestowed upon the retired professor at a November ceremony in Moscow. Read more here.

11/2018

Professor Emeritus Zachary Fisk

of Physics & Astronomy, has been named as one of the fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science for pioneering scientific discoveries regarding the magnetic and transport properties of important magnetic and superconducting materials, including heavy fermion compounds and high-temperature superconducting cuprates. Read more here.

11/2018 Professor Emeritus Stephen White of Physiology & Biophysics, has been named as one of the fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science for distinguished contributions to the understanding of cell membrane biophysics, particularly the structure of membranes, lipid bilayers and membrane proteins. Read more here.